“ Jerry you left this world with nothing but happy memories behind. It's your time to Rest In Peace and enjoy your heavenly reunions with our loved ones waiting for you. Although we will miss you forever we won't forget you. Growing up in our families the card games and get togethers. You and Geraldine were always so thoughtful visiting my mom and she enjoyed so much calling her "cioca". You've left a beautiful wife and family behind who will love you and miss you forever. Love you so much cousin❤️ I'm sure my Mom will have a hot card game waiting for you! Cindy and George

“ My handsome cousin Jerry was always proud of his Polish heritage; this was evident by the way he spoke "Broken-Polish." Regardless of where I would see him, be it a funeral, wedding, church or casino he was always cheerful, loud, and upbeat. He was a kind soul who always took an interest in our family. Jerry will be missed by all who knew and loved him. We all share in the sadness of losing one of the best!

“ I have so many memories of Jerry. From the card games on Saturday, going deer hunting up north and him, my dad and Curt sharing stories. The last thing I remember was him mentioning czarina in church to the polish priest at my dad's funeral mass.

You will be ever remembered and missed.

Love your goddaughter, Sue Labiak

“ I'll never forget when you & Geri, Linda & Bill with their newborn, Kristi, came to visit Ted & I and our firstborn, Erik, on January 16, 1972 at our new home in Brownstown. Little did we know that while we were enjoying good company, food & drink in front of a cozy fire in the fireplace that the temperatures had dipped to a record low of 14 below zero with a wind chill of 26 degrees below zero! Upon discovering your car would not start and calling AAA and being told it would be a 48 hour wait for road service, we ALL hunkered down for the night and after a hearty breakfast in the morning, Ted drove you to K-Mart to purchase a new battery! I still smile about you all being our first overnight guests. Thanks for the memories! Rest in Heaven my friend.
