“ One of the most fun loving men we will remember. He and Barb loved coming to Canada for Oktoberfest and we have fond memories of those 50+ years of fun. He sure loved the butter tarts from here too!

Rest in Peace, Gerry. Have fun dancing the polkas with the angels and your lovely wife, Barbara.

*Love,

“ What tribute in words can be said to comfort your family and friends at your passing Old School, “ Memories of the Heart”. Many memories we made over the past fifty-two years, are running through my mind and heart today. Thank You for sharing many good times and your family over the years. I hope you know, you and yours have been and are in my prayers. You and yours are memories of my heart, today, tomorrow and times to come. Be at peace, you did well and are loved.
