“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

Our family so loved your mother's cakes from back at the original Food Town to making them at home. She made cakes to celebrate many special occasions for us from births to graduation. I know your loss is painful and your hearts are heavy, but now her pain is gone and that we can rejoice in.

“ Dear Family,

I can't even begin to tell you what joy she brought to me. All the uplifting things that she ever said to me. She was always worried about me and called me and came to the nursing home to see me when I had my heart surgery.

She was always taking care of her JOSEPH (my brother, Joey).

I hope and pray that one day I i will be as Catholic as she was and I know she had her station made a long time ago in Heaven.

She is at peace now and she knew exactly what she wanted.

Mr. A and all of you, I know the sorrow you feel now and your hearts are heavy. I am very sad too, as she is one that I never expected to die before me. Wow--that just proves, we just don't know when HE IS GOING TO KNOCK!

I remember she was the very first neighbor we met on a Sunday afternoon when we were both just by the new home making sure it was being built right.

That was in 1978.

She would take me into going to church with her and I finally picked up on it after I found St. Hugo of the Hills. I did go to St. Dan's with her though.

I could go on and on and all I can say is she is a true, fine class act lady that taught all of her children so well. She always told me about all of you and her sisters wow, she sure loved them.

I gave her my statue at the time she needed it and I am so very happy.

Geri my cake lady, thanks for icing and decorating all of my cakes. I retired at the right time. When I moved, I gave it up.

You were a talent of all things. There wasn't anything you couldn't do. You were remarkable and I know you will be teaching up in Heaven.

Mr. A if you need me to go to Mass with you, just call me. I will be checking on you, too.

Love you all.

God bless all of you.

I am so sorry to hear about your loss, please accepted our condolences. In this difficult time we need comfort and encouragement, the Bible give such when Jesus promise that there will be a resurrection of those sleeping in death. John 5:28,29 tells us "Do not be amazed at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Just imagine someday we will be together again with our loved ones to live life free from sickness, sorrow, pain and even death (Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 33:24 and Revelation 21:3-5). D.Phillips
