“ *My condolences on the loss of your wife.
The Bible teaches that one day in the near future our Creator,
Jehovah God, by means of the ransom sacrifice of his son, Jesus, will reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, happiness, and perfect health for everyone. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24)
As you read the above texts from your Bible, may the wonderful hope they give us, along with loving memories bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time.
There is much Bible-based comfort to be found on the website [www.
jw.org](http://www.jw.org)
Sincerely dianne*

“ Geri was a very kind person, and she loved kids. I know this because I was one the last time that I saw her, when she was dating my uncle Phil, who she would later marry. She loved horseback riding and taught me when I was about 12. She was such a happy lady and I have the fondest memories of her. We will all see her again in a better place, and I'm grateful for the time she was here with us.

“ Something that I want everyone to know about Geri she believed life is to be lived and enjoyed. She loved to dance, to go up north and fish, camp, sight see, maybe hit a casino but most of all have fun. More than once she called me an "old fuddy duddy" and that is something she never wanted to be. I know that she could never envision herself as anything but young and active. She wasn't ready to go and I can't understand why she was taken but tomorrow is promised to no one. My last words to her were " I love you" and she replied "Love you too". I am a much better person for having her in my life and I'm sure that is true for everyone whose life she touched.

I can't tell you how sad it was to hear that Geri is gone. I knew Geri many years ago and I really enjoyed her terrific sense of humor. I hope there is some comfort from knowing that 30 year old memories of her bring a smile to my face in the midst of the sadness I feel. I am truly sorry for your loss. Tom Perry
