“ I was so sorry to read about Gerri's death and I send my heartfelt prayers and good wishes. I very much enjoyed the little talks we had after classes when I was a catechist at St. Barnabas. She was very dedicated to her work and to the young people of the parish in addition to being a real gem of a person. Now with the angels, she is now with Him for whom she so diligently worked and loved.##imported-begin##Raymond Lams##imported-end##
