“ Gloria, everytime I think of you I will smile. Nothing more needs to be said about friends, because that is God's intended purpose on this earth. In the hereafter, we will still be friends and still smile.
Love, Pam.

“ Gloria Jean the Queen (selfmade title). I will miss her sense of humor and laughing with her. I will miss her Queen signs and memorabilia. I am a better woman because of the wisdom she imparted. My condolences go out to Larry and the boys. Her family was of the utmost importance to her.

“ Gloria--My long-time pinochle friend and more recent knitting with beads friend. I will miss you terribly on the long ride to our bead class where we talked, laughed and solved all the world's problems, but will be forever grateful that you introduced me to bead knitting, I love it. You were such a loving and caring friend. My condolences to your entire family and especially to your grandson who will never know the wonderful grandma he lost. Love you--Pat Robinson

“ My deepest sympathies to the Wilber family. May you be confronted by the memories you've shared together and in the promise found at Revelation 21:3,4 here God promises that soon he wipe out every tear from our eyes and sickness, death,pain, and mourning will be no more. May this comforting promise warm your heart and brighten your day. Keeping your family in my thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely, Glenda

“ My dear friend Gloria. You were everything and more that a true friend could be. God blessed me when he brought you into my life. You gave everything of yourself to the ones you loved. You always knew the right thing to say and no matter what the circumstance may have been you could make anyone laugh. Your laugh was contagious and something I will always hold onto when thinking of you. You were something special and will forever be missed. My love always - Trisha
