“ First, let me say, I didn't know Greg A. Fargo, but I do know how it feels to lose a love one in death. You never forget them. Why? Because we have pictures, videos, vacations, picnics and gatherings of them. There is hope of seeing our love ones again by means of a resurrection. At Isaiah 26:19 says: " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." That is good news, wouldn't you say. Please read it in your Bible. Laurie.

“ Greg was a great neighbor. While walking his dog, he always stopped and spoke with us. A couple of months back, I told him that I liked his beard. To which he replied instantly, "Me too". He once gave us a word of advice. Forever, we would respect and honor that word of wisdom.
He was witty and funny. We can not believe that he has left us. He will always be in our memory. RIP Greg.

“ Greg was a great neighbor. He was always so kind to our dogs. He always took the time to stop and pet them. We will make a donation to the Leader Dogs for the Blind on his behalf. We remember when he had Mr. Higgins, he did a great job raising him as a Leader Dog. It takes a kind soul to raise a Leader Dog puppy. Our condolences go to the family and friends of Gregg.

I was pretty nervous meeting all the new faces when I got there. I remember introducing myself to him and him giving me some smartass remark that I cant recall.. Yep I liked him right away lol!*

Pictured here in early days of our relationship, 1992. Greg was a good step-father who had many life perspectives to help guide me through my teenage years and early twenties. A true influence in my life, I'm not sure what life would have been like without him. Your guidance and humor will be missed, I'll miss those front porch talks. Thanks for everything.

“ To my daddy. My heart breaks to even think you're gone. Our love for you can't even be put into words. Allie, Lilly and Clara are beyond lucky to have the most amazing Papa in the world. The joy your grand-babies brought you made my heart full. Your proudness, lessons and love you gave me and Sarah life lasting fulfillment. Thank you always daddy for the memories. I hate that your gone.
