Tribute Wall

“ To the family of Gregory Juliano: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ We have so many good memories of Cousin Greg---all the family gatherings, his wonderful sense of humor, the love he showed us all. We remember when he and Sue got married and then the birth of their sons. Greg was one of a kind. We love him dearly and will truly miss him. Our hearts go out to his family. May God bless and comfort you all.

“ I knew Greg to be a loving husband and a wonderful father. He supported his family in every way possible and had fun doing it. Greg knew how to live life to the fullest and make people smile. It was always a pleasure to talk with him. Greg will be missed, but there are many great times to remember and memories to enjoy. It was an honor knowing him. His spirit is with all of us.

“ Uncle Greg you lived life to the fullest. Thank you so much for sharing so many great times like taking your 60 some year old mother on a motorcycle ride in the alley behind her house in Detroit, taking me to TGIF for the first time when I was 18, inviting me to Traverse City and kicking my butt in darts, meeting up at the Casino to gamble and on and on. You truly will be missed. God bless you, love your niece Terri
