

Dino Loukas

July 9, 1950 - August 22, 2025

Dino Loukas was born on July 9th, 1950 to loving parents, Edward and Mary. He has 7 siblings who he shared a special bond with and loved dearly. He grew up in a home that celebrated their Greek heritage.

He had a smile that was bright and would light up any room he was in. He always exuded happiness and positivity, even at the end when his health was declining.

He was a man that would do anything for anyone, especially his family. Dino worked as an iron worker for the millwrights, Local 1102, which led to a strong work ethic that he could pass on to his boys.

Dino's favorite hobby was playing blackjack or craps at MGM or better yet, Vegas.

He had three sons who he was so proud of, Dino Jr, Eddie and Nicky. He helped them with their businesses and worked side by side with Eddie every day for over 20 years.

His greatest joy came from his grandchildren and great grandchild with whom he shared a birthday. He loved being "Papou" and his love for them was immeasurable.

Dino passed away surrounded by the people who love him most and who will carry on his beautiful energy and love for life!

Family and friends are welcome to share love and memories on Friday, August 29, 2025, at Wasik Funeral Home (49150 Schoenherr Rd., Shelby Twp.) from 3:00 - 8:00pm with a scripture service being said at 7:00 pm.

May Dino's soul rest in peace.

“ Hello everyone, my name is Sam Mazzola alias oil. Dino's father gave me that name the day. I met him. I was around 13 years old. Dino and I hung around together for many years. I stayed at the Loukas house overnight probably five out of seven nights shared the same twin bed with Dino Had a lot of good memories. He's actually the godfather of my oldest daughter Lisa. I'm so glad that I got to stop and see him three weeks prior to his death and share the love of Jesus with him rest in peace, my good friend love and miss you oil
