

Gwen A Gutschow

March 30, 1947 - February 13, 2020

Gwen A. Gutschow passed away on February 13, 2020, at the age of 72, in Clinton Township. She was born on March 30, 1947 to Lucian and Violet (Smolinski) Studniak in Detroit. Beloved wife of 48 loving years together to Fred. Loving and devoted mom of Scott (Kelly) and Brian (Katie). Proud and loving grandmother of Eliza. Dear sister of Grace Meholick. Gwen grew up in Royal Oak and attended high school at Shrine of the Little Flower. She pursued a college degree in teaching and starting teaching in the Utica Community School district from 1969-1977. She met the love of her life and married Fred on July 16, 1971 at the Shrine of the Little Flower. She took some time off to raise her sons, Scott and Brian. She became a Nursery School teacher and if she had the time she would substitute for the district. She loved spending time with her family, Fred and her would go on many motorcycle trips, she enjoyed boating on Lake St. Clair and became friends to many boaters, She was a member of "Southern Exposure" in Battle Creek and did many crafts with them and learned to paint and traveled twice to Europe. During her trips she loved shopping in the little towns Up North with her friends. Gwen's Memorial Service and visitation will be delayed for date in the future.
