Blooming Garden Basket - January 17, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ Harold was always great to talk to at every get together. We will definitely miss him, but I will miss our talks at family get togethers the most. He was wise and always had good advice, and would always tell me how proud of Keith and I he was, in creating our company Premier Roofing. It was easy to see, that he loved all of his grand children more than anything. He was truly a great man, and we will all miss him dearly. R.I.P Harold, and to the James and Powers family, we are very sorry for your loss.
