“ My deepest sympathy to all in your family for the great loss you have suffered. May you find comfort in your family, friends and the future promises found in Jehovah God's word. He has promised to end death forever and reunite us with our dear loved ones (Rev 21:4 & John 5:28, 29) May you always look back on the fond memories of your loved one.

“ Chris,
We are so sorry that we can not be with you today. We will miss Hal and his wonderful stories. He had so many interests and experiences. His surely lived his life to the fullest , always ready to go anywhere and do anything. We treasure the friendship we have made with you and Hal over the last 20 years in Lexington. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you .

“ Hal was a great man and a very loving husband. Working with his wife Chris for the past few years I have gotten to know Hal. He would always come into the office with a smile on his face when picking up his wife or bring her lunch and he was the kind of man to surprise her and take her out for lunch at times as well. He was easy to talk to and had a great sense of humor. Hal will be missed by all those who knew and loved him. Hal was a veteran, something he was very proud of. and veterans have a special place in god' s kingdom. Chris take comfort that Hal is happy and in the best place ever, he loves you and will always be with you. Lots of love and prayers are with you and your children and grandchildren.

him and he was the sweetest person. He always worried about his wife, often bringing her lunch or picking her up at work. They were a great team. He was easy to talk to and had a great sense of humor. Hal will be missed greatly by those who knew and loved him.
