Susan, Emily, you have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your mom. I miss you. Your mom was a good person, a good mom. I tell the story often of the time when I was over your house and didn't drink all the milk from my cereal bowl. Your mom reminded me that there were others less fortunate that would appreciate the milk in that bowl. My mom passed last year about this time, may they reunite in heaven~

“ I remember the fun times at the family reunions, and working with all the Aunts in the kitchen. Uncle John always teased me about using too much water. The best memory is how all the Dery sisters were always so happy!

“ Aunt Hazel was always so good to me. I remember the first time I went to a movie. She took me to see "Hans Christian Anderson" downtown @ what I believe was the Fox Theatre. Also remember Christmas time @ Kearns Department Store, where she worked. Many great memories. Will miss her.
