“ Sharon. I do not understand the path God has given to you walk, going thru the loss of 2 children. I do know however that you were and are a true blessing to have as a mother. You have helped me in times that I needed, and I know the relationship you had/have with your children and grandchildren. And I do thank God that you are who you are. You are a beautiful woman and a great influence in everyones life you touch, as well as Heidi was, and you gave that precious part to her. You are a woman I have always looked up to and will continue to do so. The strength you have is incredible, and I prey that I am half the woman/mother that you are. I so wished I could have been up there. I just want you to know how much I love you, and how much you have had an effect on my life, in ways you wouldnt even think of. I thank you for being in my life and bringing your children into my life and the opprtunity to be blessed with your love. My heart goes out to you Sharon and all the family. I am sorry it took this tragedy to appreciate it all, and say the words that should have been said along time ago. I love you dearly, and with all my heart....Tammy##imported-begin##Tammy Walker##imported-end##

“ Heidi, you had a beautiful spirit about yourself, and you were always a true friend to me. Like a sister, We had a lot of great times in our lives growing up, and even as adults. I always adored the devotion you had for your children. You were a wonderful mother. You had so much to give. you were the one that made people laugh, to see the brighter side of things, I will never ever forget the life we had shared, and the influence you gave to me in my life. I will love you and miss you forever. Your friend Tammy###imported-begin##Tammy and Danny Walker and family###imported-end##

“ To my daughter Heidi, I don't know how I will ever get past this shock and hurt. We have had our moments as mother's and daughter's do. But, most of all we have had a closeness and love that many mom's never get to have with their daughter's. Our love for each other is unmeasurable. I will miss your daily calls, with HI Mom what's going on, we would talk about what was new with the boys. Thank you Heidi for giving me two wonderful grandsons Jeffrey & Tyler. I will try and carry On for them where you left off. Until we meet again
I LOVE YOU HEIDI, YOUR MOM###imported-begin##SHARON###imported-end##

“ Heidi, I am devastated that you are no longer with us. I will never find another friend like you. You were the best friend a girl could ever ask for. I wish I could have shown you more how much I loved you. I never thought I would lose you. I thought we would be together into old age, rocking out to Aerosmith in our wheel chairs. I don't know what life will be like now without you. Who can I just be myself with? You knew me better than anyone and you always looked out for the best in me and for me. I know that I will see you again in heaven. I know you will be waiting for me when I get there. I will always love you and miss you for the rest of my days....I love you Heidi. You will never be replaced. Love, Kirsten###imported-begin###Kirsten Avallone###imported-end##

“ Pat & family, Mark & Connie, we pray for your comfort in this time of sadness. Heidi was much too young to leave a family behind. I am so glad Mark, that she is Christian. She is indeed in heaven now, & no doubt feeling the love of our Lord & Savior first hand. God bless you all in coping with your loss.###imported-begin###Frank & Tari Martin###imported-end##

“ Jeff,

What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why your mom left this earth so soon, or why she left before you were able to good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that she died, but that she lived. And that her life gave you and many others memories too beautiful to forget.

I've only met your mom several times and I remember most was her smile. Jeff, your mom will always be with you in spirit and in the many memories you shared with her and I know you will always keep her in your heart. May the love of those around you help you through the days ahead and may the comfort of God help you during this most difficult time in your life. I am heartbroken at the loss of your mother and the sadness you are experiencing, and I know that she will be missed by you and many others.

I pray for the time when your sadness and grief is gently replaced by smiles and pleasant memories.##imported-begin##Mrs. Meyer ##imported-end##

“ Seems like yesterday, that Heidi and I sat next to each other at MISD and signed papers together as hired paraprofessionals. We were so excited to start our new journey. She brightened the halls of our school every day, always having a funny observation or kind word to say to both staff and students. Heidi is truly missed. God bless her family. “ Mike, Sharon, Mark, Connie, Michael, Deanna, Jeffrey & Tyler:

I'm so sorry to hear about Heidi. I've been out of town since Sunday and won't return until next Monday but, I want you to know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers. I haven't seen you much in the last couple years but, you are all close to my heart. Growing up as a child, I always looked up to Heidi and viewed her as a "Big Sister". I'll always remember spending time with Heidi hanging out with her. I still have the autographed Detroit Tigers baseball that she gave me when we were kids. Being around Heidi was always an uplifting experience. Her upbeat personality and ability to put a smile on your face is something that I will always remember. Heidi will be greatly missed by all of us. Although I can't be there in person, my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I worked with Heidi one summer several years ago. She was such a sweet, genuine person. I was amazed at her gift of working with children. She had a laugh and smile that was contagious. Whenever we would meet up at a school inservice it was like we were long lost friends. I was deeply saddened by her death. My prayers go out to all of her family and friends. May you find comfort in knowing God is with you at this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Wendi##imported-end##

“ There are no words to soften the pain at the loss of Heidi. She was so much apart of raising my children on Polara Drive. Heidi was the high spirited little girl with an appetite for adventure. She was the constant companion to my daughter Robin and there are so very many shared memories and joys. It breaks my heart at her loss. I will always remember the dirty faced little cherub with her can-can slip on top of her outfit. She had inner beauty that allowed her to enjoy life to the fullest. May God grant comfort and strength to her family now and in the days ahead.

“ In our house she was always known as Jeffrey and Tylers mom.....she was a great person. Lots of good times - tons of laughs...she was just like me and my sisters when it came to telling stories laughing loud and being silly...she had a great heart and will truly be missed! She was a great mom - I use to get alot of advice from her on how to handle boys...my prayers, my sorrow, my love goes out to all of my sisters extended family....(who have become mine as well)....God bless you all!##imported-begin##Denise Rhoney##imported-end##

“ Nearly all of my childhood memories include Heidi. There are not enough words to express the scope of emotions I’m feeling at the loss of my first, and best childhood friend. Recollections of many happy childhood experiences keep flooding through my head. In many ways, Heidi made me a better person. Her happy, carefree spirit always kept me laughing, and convinced me to try new things. I spent five years attending catechism classes with Heidi. On church retreats, she always had the courage to ask the tough questions like, “How do we know God is real?” and “How exactly do people get to heaven?” I take comfort in knowing she made it her business to be certain about God’s love, and she is safe in His arms now.##imported-begin##Robin Splane Eichhorn##imported-end##

“ Heidi was a kind, compassionate person who often brightened my day with a song, a story or her beautiful smile. She often stopped to share a story about her sons, whom she was so proud of. I recently lost my brother and she always knew when I was struggling with a moment of sorrow. As she would reflect on her own struggle with the loss of her brother, she would offer words of comfort that helped me through my moment. She had a way of sharing that would lift my spirit. She will be missed by many students and coworkers. She taught us to appreciate the simple moments. I will always remember her fondly and I admire her ability to turn even the most unpleasant moment into a song. May the support of family and friends give her family the strength they need to cope with the loss of Heidi.##imported-begin##Kathleen Nolfo##imported-end##
