“ I will always remember going to Nema's and playing the best games! The adults would hang out up stairs while Kevin and I would be in the basement exploring and playing. The cooties game, Sesame Street alphabet train and the pretty princess puzzle that I could never finish. Once we got done playing we would come upstairs and Nema always pulled out the tin of cookies she kept on top of her fridge and let us pick one. I always liked the one with the big sugar crystals baked on top. Also, I'm pretty sure Nema had a secret printing press hidden in her basement because every birthday or holiday she would give me a card with money in it that was so crisp it had to have been printed an hour prior. When she wasn't giving money, it was the same unicorn sweater ( that I never wore) LOL!!!! I love you Nema and I will miss you so much. I'm glad your in a better place and you will always be in my thoughts and memories!!!! Xoxoxo RIP

“ I will always remember going over to Nema's house when we were little kids to play with the Sesame street alphabet train. No matter how many times we built it Nema was always willing to help us build it again! Also anytime time anything got ripped, snagged, or sewn it was time to go to Nema's house again :) Nema you will live on in our hearts forever. We miss you!
