“ Miss Helen, What can I say? We laughed, cried, and shared stories together, along with tight hugs. She was a part of my Ati's Jewelry Store Family. Her presence always lightened my day. I'll never forget a Christmas at my store when she dressed up as Mrs. Claus. She was always there and wanted to help in any way she could. I will miss her until we meet again. In my heart forever, Sandy Wowk, Owner, Ati's Jewelry Store.

“ She was the best role model of going through many trubulent times successfully with the help of God. May we learn from her life for going through current trubulent times with the help of God too. RIP, Helen!

“ Helen was truly God's Angel on Earth.....and will forever remain so! I first meet Helen about 30 years ago through The Holley Institute as she was my first Sign Language teacher. I have always loved her dearly and will hold her in my heart as a treasured friend. We have been blessed. Her Joy of life, love for our Lord and Blessed Mother was immeasurable. No one could Sign "Hail Mary" as Helen. Her face was angelic and radiated Our Mother's Love. I am over-joyed that Helen is now with Our Lord.

“ I enjoyed watching her bluntness and integrity answers on few video interviews on Facebook and I wished that I could have an opportunity to meet her. Her love, courage, community support toward everyone would be sorely missed among many. She is one of finest example as a deaf pioneer in America for everyone to learn about the history, too.

“ Sorry for your lovely ones. Great memories I had with her since before I had three small daughters at St. John’s Center Church. I told her I called her my second Gram cuz she looked like my gram who was laughing and happy and active woman like her. She was so sweet woman I ever met. I had good memories that I had kitchen helper with deaf ladies. I was last seeing her almost two years ago with last picture at the church. She will be sorely missed by me and everyone who love!! We will not be forgetting. We will meet again soon. With love and hugs 🙏🙏
