“Helen: How well I remember you as secretary at St. Hyacinth's under the Pastorate of Father Frank Skalski! Remember very well when I appeared at the rectory following my ordination to the priesthood for my first Mass at St. Hyacinth's in May of 1982. You asked me "WHAT SHALL WE CALL YOU NOW" ? I replied "JOE" would be fine!!!! Helen and John knew me growing up and playing ball on what was called "tar field" the parish parking lot! "May your tears be wiped away as you see your God face to face".....from the Rite of Christian Burial.
