“ it was a blessing to have Helen with us for so many years. I will always remember her kindness growing up next door, on riad street in Detroit, this kind, small in stature but strong in faith woman was always Mrs. Zaagsma to me. quiet, but always one to share time with me whenever we would see each other, maybe outside, or at St. Jude's, or even just sitting outside on the porch on a summers night. we know she is now with her husband Al, Mr. Zaagsma to me, who like Helen, was quiet but kind and willing to share time whenever I would lean over the fence to talk tigers, work, life. they were a beautiful couple to have as next door neighbors in our small but friendly little corner of Detroit.
