“ In 1955 I watched as Tony and Helen's house was built right across the street. As the neighborhood grew, we all pitched in and they were always among the first to volunteer their help; a wonderful couple. Helen and I weathered many years together and I feel fortunate to have been a part of her life. She will always be a valued and treasured friend to me.##imported-begin##Lois Roberts##imported-end##

“ Aunt Helen was a good person and very kind to our family. We will miss her, but understand that she is in a better place with her brother (my Dad) and sister, plus Uncle Tony her beloved husband.##imported-begin##Bill & Suzi Gordon##imported-end##

“ Aunt Helen will always be remembered for her kindness and loving nature. I enjoyed our time spent as young children with her. Playing with her costume jewelry, going shopping and having lunch at Sanders or Hudson's.
I know that she is at peace now and joined by her sister Emma (my mom), brother David, Uncle Tony and her parents, Aunt Helen can experience the joy of family that she always desired. Happy memories of you Auntie Helen!

“ I really enjoyed growing up with a nice Aunt like Helen. Her door was always open to me when I rode my bike over to her house. Now she is in peace with her sister and brother, and our wonderful Uncle Tony.##imported-begin##Mary Johnston##imported-end##

“ Aunt Helen was a very proud and loving lady. I remember when my sisters and I would spend the weekend with her and thought cleaning with Aunt Helen was fun. She always went all out for the holidays. The last 6 years she spent in Fraser Villa, who took very good care of her. She is now with her whole family up in heaven and I'm sure enjoying this time of her life. I will miss you Aunt Helen, but know you are in a better place.
