“ I wanted to say something during the service but I chickened out.

First, everybody knows how amazing this women, my grandmother was. With her kind heart, loving personality, and awesome sense of humor. Gramma was definitely young at heart. She was fun, outgoing, and active. That's exactly how she wanted each and every one of us to remember her by. I remember some of the last times seeing her she would always take her finger and wave it around her head in frustration because she knew what was happening to her and it just broke my heart. Now I know that she is in a better place, Heaven, where she will also be loved unconditionally. She wasn't only a Gramma to me , she was an authority figure. As easy going as my mom was she never told me I had to get up and WARSH those dishes or watch my LANGRIGE(as Gramma would put it), I needed that in my life. If it wasn't for her I wouldn't be the person I am today. She brought everyone together with her holiday gatherings, good times up north. None of that will be the same without her. I can go on and on about her. She made such a big impact on everyone's life. We all share these memories and we all know exactly what kind of person Gramma was. I think this isn't only a time to grieve but also a time to celebrate the life of an amazing Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Aunt, and Friend. She wanted the best for all of us. R.I.P. Gramma. We will miss you dearly. WE LOVE YOU!###imported-begin##Anna###imported-end##

“ I will miss you so much, Gramma. You were one of the most important people in my entire life. You had so much to do with shaping everything that is good about me. So sorry that I can't be there for your funeral (never would have thought I could have missed it!), but you are in my heart always..always. Love,

“ Grandma was the strongest woman I know, she is so inspiring to me, especially during these past 6 months and for the next few years, I will be looking to her for our strength and courage. We all had a great role model growing up, and now we have a great guardian angel!! We love you so much gram! I am happy that you found your peace...this is not a goodbye, but a see you later!###imported-begin###Robin###imported-end##

“ If I could be half the woman my Mom was, I would be a very happy person! She influenced the lives of so many people. She was loved by many many lifelong friends. She adored her grandchildren and her great grandchildren and her great-great grandchildren. She is responsible for this wonderful, incredible family. She will be sorely missed by her children, family and many friends. I love you Mom...I will see you in heaven someday. I know there are many people up there that are glad you finally arrived. I know they are welcoming you with open arms. Goodbye for now...I love you.##imported-begin##Jeannie Coates-Navalta##imported-end##

“ My mom had a long, wonderful life and a very peaceful death. What an amazing, loving and fun mom she was. She had so many friends! I'm sure there was a celebration in heaven when she arrived! I will never, ever forget the years I got to care for her....it was truly a privilege for Ken and me. I'll be seeing ya mom.##imported-begin##Sue and Ken Knight##imported-end##
