Tribute Wall

“ I am truly sorry to read of your loss. There is an ancient book that assures us, that those whom we have lost in death will be resurrected. It also tells us that they will have the opportunity to live in a paradise earth, where sickness and death no longer exist. (Psalm 37:29) Yes this paradise will only be inhabited by righteous individuals. I sincerely hope that these Bible truths prove to be of some comfort and encouragement at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Nitisha##imported-end##
