Helen Mahon Wagner of Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan passed away peacefully at home on Sunday, January 2, 2011 at the age of 90. Helen and her loving husband, Joseph (deceased) were devoted to their four children, Suzanne (J. “ Ray, Donna, Vicki, and Anthony and All the world to know, Please bear with me as I want to tell everyone a little story about my little sister Betty:

Our Mom and Dad were so happy when Elizabeth was born on Oct 13th, 1959. Because of this, the number 13 was now a lucky number. As for me, her older sister of 10 years, I was very jealous because I was the only girl with 7 brothers. I quickly realized that this was also the best day of my life. When I first saw Betty, she was like a precious little dolly. I couldn't keep my eyes off of her. From that moment on, I spoiled her silly. Whenever she started to cry, I would quickly run to her, take her and rock her back to sleep. She loved it and so did I.

For all my years, she was everything to me and will always be my little sister and my little dolly. I am with you always and you are with me. I Love You so so very much. Your big sis, the crybaby, Pat (Patricia) XOXOXO

P.S. Yes, I had to tell this story again. It wouldn't be the same, as you have been hearing this all your life, so why stop now and I never will!!!##imported-begin## Patricia Marino##imported-end##

“ Helen, (Mom), you taught me so many things, things that my mom wasn't so great at, like how to cook for one. You were always so very kind and protected me when the going got tough. I will always hold you dear in my heart. Enjoy your new perfect everlasting life. Love, Patsy###imported-begin###Patsy Friedrich###imported-end##

“ Suzanne, Jeff & Tim,
I was so sorry to read about your mother today. I remember her and your Father as two of my parents dearest friends. I called my mother to let her know, and she was on her way to her place in Gaylord. She was very upset that she would not be able to be at the funeral. She also wanted me to make sure to let you know that she is doing very well, and asked that one of you give her a call when you can in the next week or so. She will be back from Gaylord on Saturday, and her number is in the book (In SCS, and still under my dad's name, if you can believe it).
God's peace to you all, and please know that the Godin family will be lifting you up in prayer.

“ My sincerest condolences to Helen's family and friends. During this time of great sorrow may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator Jehovah God cares about you personally(1Peter 5:7)and can help you through this difficult time. Revelation 21:4 speaks of a time soon when Jehovah God will do away with death forever. There will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. May your happy memories and God's precious promises warm your heart and help make your pain a little easier to bear.##imported-begin##Mrs. Harris ##imported-end##
