“ Trudy, Joy and Chuck,
Our heart felt condolences. We are so sad to hear the news of your dad's passing. "Uncle Goggs" you were a one in a million guy! I can just imagine the Joyful Homecoming you received by the Frazier Clan and Aunt Janette upon your arrival! Rest in Peace!
Much Love,
Ruth and Humphrey
ps. I had to re-write this because I was the 1st to post but now it has disappeared, but that's ok you watched me write it :)

*Dear Trudy and Joy and Chuck,
We are so sorry to hear about the loss of your Dad. He reminded me so much of Grandpa. He is now with your Mom and so much of his family and you will be with him again someday as well. He is blessed now to be healthy and happy and in the arms of the lord. God bless all of you and give you strength to deal with your loss. I am sorry I cannot attend the funeral as we are in Alberta Canada. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.*

“ Dear Joy, Trudy and Chuck,
Our entire family of Ridky's are all so very sorry for the loss of your father and our Uncle Gogs. For myself, I'll never ever forget your loving souls when you traveled in wintery weather four years ago to visit my very ill mother and the look in Uncle Gogs eyes when he walked out the door and told his sister he would see her again. Unfortunately, that time has come. I hope you find solace in that he's in a much better place than earth and he's with your mom, his parents and some of his siblings. God Bless.
Love,
Sandra

“ Hank was a great neighbor. He was always there to lend a helping hand. He was the kind of neighbor and man of character that only comes around once in a life time. He would lend a hand, lone us a tool and snowplow our driveway, never asking for anything in return. We miss him.

Joy, Please remember all the happy times you shared with your father. You are a person of courage and strength, always leading the way. You are a person of kindness and warmth with uncountless gifts to give. Your parents taughts you to give unconditionally. Please believe in these two things. You're stronger than you may imagine, and you are never alone. I am so proud to be your friend. All My Love Prudy
