“ I'll miss you at the family get togethers for lunch that we often had. I'll miss you on the holidays. I'll miss you when we say "luv ya" during our goodbyes. I'll miss a surprising new something I learn about you as we chat. I'll miss these things but will never forget what a loving, caring and righteous brother you have been. Always in my heart and prayers. ❤️🙏

“ One of Hank's most important achievements was serving in the U.S. Army and fighting for his country. Rest In Peace and know that you will be with your 101st Airborne Band of Brothers who went before you. Thank you for serving and God Bless

“ So many good memories. So many good times. I am so glad that you are my Uncle. I am not only thankful that you were my Uncle but you were the Greatest Big Brother to my Mom and all my Aunts and Uncles. You will always be a beloved son of my Grandmother. I enjoy hearing all the stories from my family of all the times you spent together having fun and taking care of each other. There are so many but one of my favorites was when you and my mom would go roller skating while trick or treating and come back with enough full pillow cases to last the whole year. I especially remember our Christmas Eve parties together at your house. I remember Santa Claus and feeling so happy to be a kid and experiencing so many family traditions and love. You meant the world to me. I love you. You will be missed everyday. Until we meet again. Love Jennifer.
