“ This earth was a better place for the past 80 years because Uncle Hank was on it. What a blessing having him in our lives has been. He will be missed by all. Auntie, I know you miss him most having been with him daily for the past 55 years. His legacy will be carried on through his children and grandchildren. I have now added to my prayers a beautiful thought that was shared at his Eulogy and that is to pray that I can do something everyday as selfless as Uncle Hank always did; if we all do this his memory will never leave us.##imported-begin##Karen Furton-Sparks##imported-end##

“ Uncle Hank will be missed greatly by all. He was truly a wonderful man with a keen sense of humor who knew how to show love. He took great care of Grandma Plizga for many years and I am sure she is happy to see him and laugh with him in heaven. I hope that there is great comfort in all of the beautiful memories created through the years and that the love of family and friends help to ease the pain of such a tremendous loss.##imported-begin##Kelli Furton##imported-end##

“ Julius & Irene were at the gate of Heaven to welcome Hank. What wonderful memories we have of this great man. Hank served ALL in his family, friendships and community.

A man of many talents, the greatest of these was Love. He will be missed, but he earned his eternal rest. A favorite memory of Hank Edem is a very private one. Hank and I were alone on shore at Lake Leann while everyone else was on an evening boat ride. We were talking about how I missed my parents. I told Hank..." I don't want to look down on you in a casket someday and wish I had told you how much you mean to me and how much you are loved." So - I am grateful to have told Hank how I felt before he slipped away from us. Henry Edem was always hauling things - always helping. I remember writing our wedding invitation to him and Joan and adding: YOU DON'T HAVE TO BRING ANYTHING - JUST COME AND HAVE A GOOD TIME!

Well done, good and faithful servant.

Love,

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Hank will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Hank again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Hank seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ The heavens burn brighter tonight as a new star has been added. The "drugstore cowboy" is in the arms of his loved ones who have gone before him to prepare the way. Guess he will never dance with his sister-in-law here on earth, but then there is always heaven to try new dance moves. In the end a close and caring family is the most important treasure and in this regard you left earth a "trillionaire." You are loved. We will miss you.###imported-begin###Bob and Eileen Furton###imported-end##
