

Henry J. Junga

November 17, 1922 - December 1, 2011

Henry J. Junga of Detroit, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 1, 2011 at St. John Hospital in Detroit at the age of 89. He was born November 17, 1922 in Detroit to Joseph and Clara (nee Gurbada) Junga.

Henry and his twin brother, Harold both served our country in the Army during World War II. While under attack, both were injured in combat and Harold passed away in his brother Henry's arms. Henry later received a Bronze Star and Purple Heart for his service.

Henry was a founding member of St. Louis the King Parish in Detroit. He was also a member of the D.A.V. Chapter 60. He was also the "Coupon Clipper" of the family.

Henry is survived by his wife Regina and in June would have celebrated their 65th Wedding Anniversary. He is also survived by his son, James (Susan) Junga; grandsons, Jayme (Amy) and John (Stephanie) and by his great grandchildren, Jack and Jayce who referred to him as their "GG". He was predeceased by his sons, Sgt. Harold Junga and Henry "Butch" Junga Jr., parents Joseph and Clara; and twin brother Harold.

Beloved husband of Regina. Dear father of James (Susan) Junga and the late Sgt. Harold Junga and Henry "Butch" Junga Jr. Loving grandpa of Jayme (Amy) and John (Stephanie). Adoring "G.G." of Jack and Jayce. Predeceased by his twin brother Harold Junga.

“ My deepest condolences to Mrs Junga, Jimmy and family! I have great memories of Mr Junga and his three sons coming over our house while my mom and Mrs Junga went to bingo. Cigar smoke always reminds me on Mr. Junga.##imported-begin##Juli Pruski (Zajac)##imported-end##

“ I have very pleasant memories of Mr. Junga coming to our house on Albany St. Sometimes he would have Harold, Jimmy, and Butch with him. His three boys and my sisters and I would watch scary movies on Shock Theater on T.V. as the grownups talked. I recall that Mr. Junga liked to smoke cigars back then. When I smell cigar smoke I think of him. My deepest sympathy to Mrs. Junga and Jim(my). God bless you.##imported-begin##Pat Zajac##imported-end##

“ Jim I just heard about your father from Clayton. I am truly sorry for your loss but just hearing his name made me smile about the many times 'hiding out' in the belt shop and swapping stories with Hank and the other, to me, old timers. Good times and a wonderful person.##imported-begin##Bill Heinrich##imported-end##

“ *Dear Jim and Susan:
Please know your in our thoughts and prayers regarding the passing our your father. We enjoyed the times with Grandpa, especially the fathers day at our house when Amy told us she was pregnant with Jack and how special that was for all of us. Tell Grandma we love her and that she is in our prayers as well.*

*Love,
