

Herman W. Mazzoline

August 5, 1929 - June 22, 2013

Herman W. Mazzoline passed away Saturday, June 22, 2013 at the age of 83. He was born August 5, 1929.

Beloved husband of the late Alethea J. Dear father of Darrell (Beverly), Shelley (David) Mazzoline-Myers, and Sheila Mazzoline (Dan Bolda). Loving grandfather of David (Lisa Bares), Alyshia (Justin), Alethea, Ryan, and Tess Maria and great grandfather of Justin Paul, Kennedy Corin, and Gavin David.

A Memorial Visitation will be held Saturday, June 29, 2013 at 12 p.m. until a Memorial Service at 4 p.m. at Wasik Funeral Home Inc., 11470 Thirteen Mile Road (west of Hoover), Warren. Expressions of sympathy may be shared with the family at www.wasikfuneralhome.com

Cemetery Details

Cadillac Memorial Gardens East

38425 Garfield
Clinton Twp., MI 48038
(586) 286-7500
<http://cadillacmemorialgardenseast.com/>

Previous Events

Memorial Visitation

JUN 29. 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM (ET)

Wasik Funeral Home - Warren
11470 Thirteen Mile Road
Warren, MI 48093
(586) 751-3131
warren@wasikfuneralhome.com

Memorial Service

JUN 29. 4:00 PM (ET)

Wasik Funeral Home - Warren
11470 Thirteen Mile Road
Warren, MI 48093
(586) 751-3131
warren@wasikfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

BW

“ I attend Holy Cross Church with my wife and In-laws. Early in my attending there, I became head of the church maintenance crew, and Bud was a key member of the group who was always active and ready to help, and was knowledable too! A really big help to me, and true servant of the Lord! Personally, he was a good friend to our family, and I missed seeing him in the later years, he was a memorable guy. My condolences to his family. You were blessed.

Brian Williams - April 16, 2014 at 07:51 PM

KO

“ My family knew Bud from our days together at Holy Cross Church. From the time Katie and Drew were just tiny kids "Mr. Bud" was always sure to speak to them and always had a joke and something kind to say. As every other memory here notes, Bud was a good man. I am sorry I have not seen him in some years. But he will always be a role model of how I would like to be as I reach a "certain age". Thank you Bud for being my friend.

Ken Oughton - June 29, 2013 at 04:07 PM

CK

“ I met "Grandpa about 5 years ago when my son Justin and Alyshia found each other and I was over their house. I liked him from the start, how couldn't ya? I had my hair spiked back then and he said with a twinkle in his eye, what did you stick your finger in a light socket? I laughed and loved it, wasn't the first time I heard that. What stuck in my mind was that he told Justin after I left He felt bad that he hurt my feelings . Justin assured him he did not but the next time I seen him he apologized to me. A stand up guy. . Last Christmas I loved it when he got on all fours and played with my grandson JP in the tunnel crawled in and out at the screaming delight of JP. He loved kids and they loved him back. I will miss him too. God Bless You Grandpa. My heart goes out to all the Williamson and Meyers family. ...

Cyntiha Kimpe - June 29, 2013 at 01:02 PM

SM

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Sheila Mazzoline - June 29, 2013 at 07:07 AM

CK

“ Dear Bud,

My heart is very heavy while I try to put into words what you have meant to me over the past 47 years.. The best memories are the summer and winter vacations spent up at the cabin with you guys!! The motorcycles, horses, bond fires and lets not forget the snowmobiles!!! We never wanted or needed for anything when we were with you and Dee especially the laughs.. You always made me feel like I was one of the family.. ;-)

I will forever miss your huge "welcome home hugs" that I received after my long travels to come back.. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for giving me the best friend any person could dream of having, you daughter Sheila.. I know she was, "daddy's little girl" because I got to see it first hand.. You are her Hero!!!

Rest in peace Bud, and know that so many people love you deeply & will miss you terribly... Love always, "Trouble". Haha. Cathy Knapp xoxo

Cathy Knapp - June 29, 2013 at 02:43 AM

SW

“ Peace...Prayers.....and Blessings to the family of Bud!

My Sincere Sympathy,

Sylvia

Sylvia Wroblewski - June 27, 2013 at 06:36 PM

PC

“ 43To My Dearest Bud

I will always remember the day we met. when God poked you in the ribs and told you,, and your pal Augie, to cross the street to talk to this lonely lady, my life changed.

That was in 2005. Here we are in 2013, and you have crossed another street. We went from being neighbors to friendship, with our first official date, on Valentines Day, 2007 to I Hop. Our friendship grew to companionship, then to being sweethearts.

In our eight years together, we had many bumps in the road, as other couples do, but with forgiveness and love we got over them.

You became a welcomed part of a large, extended family and group of friemds. They came to love you as much as I did. They were happy for me, if I was happy with you.

The younger ones were sad when they learned you had left us.

They enjoyed your jokes

your teasing, and your playfulness. You were "Papa Bud".

I will see you again one day. You will forever be remembered, and missed.

Be at peace.

"Luv ya, see ya" PATRICIA

Patricia Crump - June 27, 2013 at 02:27 PM

SM

“ 1 file added to the album Family Photos

Shelley Myers - June 26, 2013 at 08:07 PM

 Sheri
Carriere

“ Dear Bud, I cannot wrap my head around not seeing you anymore. It became routine to wave to you everyday when I left for work. I made sure to always drive slow and not talk on the phone (at least when I was passing your house!). I will miss the little things you did for me like bringing in my garbage cans when I was at work and keeping an eye on the house all the time. I will especially miss helping you with things that you would NEVER ask for help with (like shoveling the snow). I enjoyed giving you a proper hard time as much as you enjoyed giving me a proper hard time. I had a gift for you the week you were sick and I thought every day that week that I would stop in and give it to you. I didn't know you weren't going to be around. I am so sorry that I didn't and I will regret it forever. I still wonder what you were waving your finger at me for that day on your porch? (I wasn't speeding I swear!). I can hardly go outside and see your empty house now without crying. I will miss you very much Bud :(XOXO Sheri

Sheri Carriere - June 26, 2013 at 07:21 PM

ME

“ Dearest "bud" yer jokes were endless and i always had to watch my mouth lol around you no slipping of the swear words and when i did u would just laugh and say oh that bad mouth..... You will dearly be missed so you know!!!!

megan - June 26, 2013 at 04:23 PM

TC

“ Dear "Papa" Bud , you used to tell funny jokes that made me laugh,you tickled me & made me have fun on Celestes birthday when you kept tying our feet together. I am going to miss you & all the things you did with us.

I LOVE YOU

From Adriana Boeneman

Theresa Crump - June 26, 2013 at 01:53 PM

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Michael Wasik - June 26, 2013 at 09:47 AM

GL

“ My deepest sympathies to the Mazzoline family. May your family find comfort in the wonderful memories you've shared an in "the God of all comfort,who comforts us in all our tribulation." (2Corinthians 1:3,4)And God also promises that soon sickness,death,and pain will be no more.(Isa.33:24;Rev.21:4)May these beautiful promises from the Bible warm your heart and brighten your day.

Glenda - June 26, 2013 at 06:57 AM

DM

“ On June 22, 2013 my Father Herman Mazzoline (Bud) Passed away. In my drunken stupor I publish this video in memory of him. Please endure me as I bathe in my sorrow.
He was A good man. Some would measure a man's success by his monetary gains in life.... AKA wealth.... donations to say a hospital with a wing in their name etc....
While there is some truth to this. I would argue there is one other more simple measure of a mans success.... is his off spring. In the wild the males fight to spread their seed. The females reject the weak. The goal is healthy spawn to carry the seed. Bud raised 3 bright healthy entrepreneurs. All of which have produced brilliant even more brighter offspring to carry their name and genes. So I would argue Bud was a VERY successful man. IMHO.
God rest his soul . We love you Dad!! Say hi to Mom for me will you.

Darrell Mazzoline

Darrell Mazzoline - June 26, 2013 at 12:11 AM

KM

“ So sorry to hear of Uncle Bud's passing... Dale and I loved and respected him for his vivacious spirit :). He was quick-witted and never was afraid to speak his mind :). May God bless your family as you go through your loss, but Heaven has gained a son :)

Dale and Karen Mazzoline

Karen Mazzoline - June 25, 2013 at 09:29 PM

“ Susan Martin Dagastino sent a virtual gift in memory of Herman W. Mazzoline

Susan Martin Dagastino - June 25, 2013 at 09:25 PM

“ Bruce Barr Sr lit a candle in memory of Herman W. Mazzoline

Bruce Barr Sr - June 25, 2013 at 08:46 PM

“ A wonderful man of honor! A military man, Awesome father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. Bud will be greatly missed by all who new him! 83 years of age. He battled testicular cancer, by pass surgery, and dealt with arthritis. His courageous battles still kept him in good spirits. i will miss my daily weather updates and his encouraging words of wisdom. I love you Dad.. You can now rest in the heavens with all your loved ones and look down upon all of us and keep us safe. It's not good bye my friend, it's until we meet again! I love you daddy... all in the Glory of God!

Your loving daughter,

Shelley May Mazzoline-Myers

Shelley Myers - June 25, 2013 at 06:58 PM