“ I brought Holy Communion to Joe for many years. He was always so anxious to receive and grateful to those who brought him Communion. His gentleness and reverence was an example to all of us. Our sympathy and prayers are offered to all of his family.

“ Karen, my heart goes out to you. I know there aren't words that can take away any of the pain, but I hope the day that you can look back and smile and laugh at the memories of your father (as opposed to through tears) comes quickly for you.

My thoughts and prayers are truly with you. Lyn Calu##imported-begin##Lyn Calu##imported-end##

“ Dear Pat,
I would like pass along my condolences to you and the entire Toepel family on your fathers passing. It was really great to be apart of the mini wake last night, and so good to see you, it's been too long. I'll see you again before you leave.

Take care my good friend,
