“ Loved him dearly. He was my second father. He was funny. He was a great judge. He would tease me all the time He loved his boat, golfing, being a judge, and mostly Marcie and his family. I was sad when he moved up north because I didn't get to see him much although he would tease me that my Chrysler vehicle didn't know how to get up north. We loved playing euchre and i remember when i started working for him in 1973 at Wall Dean and Cyrul they would go to Maple Lanes for lunch and play bridge. As a judge he would marry couples and always ended with “I sentence you to life”. They always laughed. We used to fight over the air conditioner running in the courtroom because I couldn't hear the testimony and then we laughed about it. He was a different judge. He had a case where a suit was brought over pans and he made them cook in the courtroom another case of cock fighting and they let it loose and it came right at me the judge and attorneys ran. There are many memories i have over the years. He was a great individual. Everyone loved him

“ The unforgettable memories I have of Captain are in the small things. His gravelly, well-used laugh. Getting caught every time he tried to sneak us extra cookies and sweets. Playing the piano for us with a flourish but only after we asked and asked. Visiting their house as a (great) grandchild, it was a magical place full of fun and love.

We'll miss you, Captain. Until we meet again.

“ Judge Cyrul was a true gentleman and outstanding judge! As a young attorney, he was great to practice in front of and we learned so much from him over the years. I met him socially through his great friend Judge Tom McDonnell. He will be missed. Judge Douglas Shepherd
