“ Dear Deborah:

*Though we have never met, I feel like I know you; I have heard so many wonderful things about you from Maxine. I know how it hurts to lose your Mom, our best friend, but the pain subsides as time goes by and we have the wonderful memories of their unconditional love to sustain us through the rest of our lives. God bless you. I hope we can meet before too long a time goes by. Most sincerely,

“ Dear Deborah:

We were so sorry to learn of your dear mothers' passing. We know you have lovingly cared for her as only a daughter can and we trust that your special moments with her will now comfort your heart as you grieve her loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. We send you our love and may God bless and comfort you.

“ I love you, Aunt Deborah...and I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Know that we're 100% with and behind you on this as a family. We will naturally be praying for peace and comfort for you at this time, as well as rejoicing and praising God: for your mother's powerful and positive impact on your life, for all the time you got to spend w/ her over these last few years—however difficult they may have been at times, and for the legacy of love she built during the many years she was granted life.

I'll stay in close touch w/ my Mom on your whereabouts over these next few weeks, and look forward to talking w/ you soon, when the timing is right. You are not alone. You are loved.##imported-begin##Brian Zopf##imported-end##

“ Dearest Deborah:

You are very much in our thoughts and prayers these days as you grieve the loss of your beloved Mother. No words are adequate to take away your pain, but may they at least convey that we are aware of your immeasurable loss and our love and concern for you.

Love,
