

Ian Michael Pardington

January 13, 1971 - January 3, 2024

Ian Pardington, beloved husband of Theresa of 18 years and father to 4 beautiful children, passed away on Wednesday, January 3, 2024, and is reporting for duty to his Commanding General, Jesus. Ian had great passion and a calling from God to be a warrior for Truth and the Gospel. Ian had struggled with heart issues since 2016 and by the grace of God survived two previous major heart surgeries. His third battle related to his heart started with sepsis which ultimately led to cardiac arrest. Ian was born and raised in the Rochester area and his impact with people is interwoven into the community. He successfully built his own business, worked in sales, and was a radiation technologist in his early years. Outspoken and funny, Ian would get people laughing and talking – strangers became instant buddies. He will be dearly missed this side of Heaven and his family will continue to see the blessings of his life well lived. Please leave any stories or “Ian-ism” for the family to read and cherish.

Family and friends may visit on Thursday, January 11, 2024, from 1-8pm at Wasik Funeral Home (49150 Schoenherr Rd, Shelby Twp.). A funeral service will be held for Ian on Friday, January 12, 2024 at 11:00 am at the Funeral Home. Family and friends may start to gather for the service starting at 10:00 am.

Memorial contributions may be made in Ian’s name to, <https://givesendgo.com/IanPardington>.

“ Ian worked for me at Ricoh . I am shocked and saddened to hear of his passing . Even though our paths didn't cross much after April of 2017 he would occasionally check in on me and we trade laughs and barbs . My condolences to his family . Good man better father - gone to soon .

“ I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Ian as we were in the same training class and on the same team at work. His friendly, one of a kind personality brought out the best in everyone, and his jokes always put a smile on our faces. One evening our coworker had an issue with his car tire. Not only did Ian know how to fix the tire, but he even followed our coworker to the store to ensure he made it safely. My condolences to his family. You will be missed, buddy!

“ Ian has always been a great cousin and family member. When I was in college I remember all the advice he gave me from his own experiences, which was tremendously helpful. Ian’s thunderous laughter and love for god and his family only leaves a great legacy and role model for all. God please bless dear Ian and may his Father Tom and brother Richard welcome him into heaven. Ian I will truly miss you brother more than ever and may you rest in peace.

“ There are some people who bring a light so great into the world that even after they have gone that light remains... Ian was without a doubt one of those people. I am so blessed to have gotten to work with him and experience his positive energy, his kind and fun loving soul, and of course the endless dad jokes and gentle kidding he brought as often as he could. He was a genuinely good person and his love for his family shined through in every conversation about them. He will be greatly missed and I hope his light can bring comfort to his friends and family during this difficult time!

“ Ian became my coworker a little over a year ago and I was very lucky to be on the same team with him for most of that time. He made even some of the dullest days brighter with his dad jokes and words of wisdom. I can't believe I won't get my daily high five on my way out of work anymore but I am so grateful for all of those days that I did. Thank you for being you, Ian. We miss you.

“ It's always been a lot of wild fun anytime Ian and I got together. I cut my hand off once, just once and Ian offered to assist me with picking up lumber. Ian was so kind that when my suppliers asked what I had done to my hand Ian stepped up and said "crocheting accident!" Well he tried to save me the embarrassment of making my own mistakes.

When my my wife was in the hospital with sepsis (the illness that played a major role in Ian's passing) he had stepped up, rearranged his schedule to drive my youngest to the hospital to see my wife. He was always there and very supportive. He always knew what to say. I am certain that these aren't characteristics specific only to Ian but they are those that are more specific to Jesus Christ. Ian, you will be missed for a little while but I am certain we will meet again. I love you Brother!
