“ She was a faithful woman of God, who I came to love dearly. Each time I visited with her at home she would always greet me with that wonderful bright smile of hers, how her faced brightened when she showed me the pictures of her family, then she would talk of her love for her family, & for the Lord. I will always cherish those visits. No matter how bad her eyes were getting she would always read her Bible, Her life & her faith was an example to me, to all of us. Her journey here on earth is done, & life with God has now begun for her. The part that is left behind is a gift for all of us to treasure. I will miss you Jean, my sister in Christ & my friend. I will miss her deeply.

“ She will be sorely missed...such a sweet lady that she was! I hope she's better than 'tollable' now that she's with her Lord! she found it hard to believe that I understood her southern words & accent that slipped out sometimes...that is until she found out my dad was born on a mountain in Tennessee...then she understood all to well, but the surprise in her eyes that first time was priceless! RIP Jean!!!! We loved you!!!!

“ Today we remember someone very special who has always been special to many and passed on or gone home, so we still show we miss them and love them and they will always be in our hearts forever.

Although death and illness has separated us physically faith and love have bond us eternally. Though we cannot see you, we know you are here. Though we cannot touch you, we feel the warmth of your smile, as we begin a new chapter in our lives. It will be very hard without you.

So today we pause to reflect upon those who have shaped our character, molded our spirits and touched our hearts. May there always be a reminder of the memories we have shared, a representation of the everlasting impact you have made upon our lives.
