“ We were neighbors of Mrs. Bielat's. Our oldest son, Jason was especially sad to hear of her death. He just had to come to pay his last respects. Our 3 sons thought a lot of your mom. When they were little, Mrs. Bielat's driveway was as far as they could ride their bikes. Jason (now 21) used to say hi and Mrs. Bielat asked him to come and sit with her on the porch. She offered him cookies and lemonade, but he told her he couldn't take anything from a stranger! She came down and asked if we had her permission to let Jason share cookies and lemonade with her. We all had a good laugh! The tradition of afternoon talks complete with goodies continued with our other 2 sons. They had many fine talks with this wonderful woman. We have missed her on the street and she will remain a very special person in our boys childhood. Our prayers are with the family.##imported-begin##The Jerome Family##imported-end##

“ Sorry that I was unable to pay my last respect to your mom. I am Lottie Roman
Bob and Larry might remember me.
I am Ed Roman,s wife. Your mom passed away the same day, was burried the same day 6 yrs.later,as my husband. I will always remember her in my prayers.
May God Bless you all, for taking care of her.
Lil Latkwski is seeing her great ganddaughter born last week. She is in Indiana.

“ I loved Aunt Renee. She had funny jokes to tell about the factory, and and nice smile....she would come and visit her cousin "Eddie" which is my "foster father". She will be missed. But always in my heart. I love you Aunt Renee.... Your in a better place.....love Michele.##imported-begin##Michele Mullaly##imported-end##
