“ Thanks for the many years of friendship, and watching our boys grow into young men together. I always enjoyed your humor and stories during our visits over the past few years. The Sabo Family will miss you!

“ Although I only knew Mrs. Dyson for a short time, it was quite easy to want to spend time with her to listen to her stories. Her face lit up when you walked into the room. She was a charming woman with a lot to tell. I will miss her very much and think of her fondly. My sincerest condolences to her daughter Lesley and her family.
