“ My condolences and prayers to the Pomaranski family,

Aunt Irene holds the record for giving the strongest hugs than anyone I have known. I learned when I was very little to always take a deep breath before hugging Aunt Irene, because she would take the wind right out of you after her hugs leaving you gasping for air. As long as we have and keep those good memories of her, she will always still be with us.

“ *Dear Pomaranski Family,
I was so saddened to here of Irene's passing. I can only hope that I was able to keep her comfortable and at peace during her last days. The pleasure was mine Irene. I know you gave me those eyes every time you saw me coming! Peace be with you and your family. May God's loving grace free your hearts from burden.

“ Dear Pomaranski Family,

We are so sorry to learn of the loss of your mother. May all the wonderful memories you have, help you through the difficult days ahead, and may you find peace in knowing, she is no longer in pain. Please know that we are keeping all of you close in thought and prayer.

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." Rev. 21:4
