“ Jeff and Diane and family,
So sorry to hear of your mom, Irene's passing. She was a wonderful, loving woman. Growing up in "our" neighborhood I have so many memories, but two things that can describe your mom was her wonderful cooking and that terrific laugh. She could make the room come alive with her laughter! I know she is at peace and dancing with her Lou and the old "Wagner" gang are having one heck of a party!

“ Dearest Irene...

*I will remember your laughter through my tears,
First I was your daughter-in-law and then your friend for many years.
You helped me with raising our beautiful Jason & Alicia its true,
I learned a lot about cooking from you when sometimes I didn't have a clue!
You were a very grand lady and always had nice things to say,
Unless someone got on your 's' list...then get out of the way!
We shared our Corrie and catching up on the characters of "the street",
For everyone you always made a special treat!
Yes my dear you have left us behind to join Big Loius in Heaven above,
Thank you for always sharing with me your special love!*

*Signed your #1 (fan)
Love, Cindi xo*
