“ Dear Mark,

We are saddened to hear of Irena's passing. Our sincere condolences to you and your entire family.

We will forever remember all those good times we had together in Florida. Irena's dinners were stuff of dreams. She used her artistic talent to arrange the dinner table that made it fit for a royal palace. Irena was always very enthusiastic to go out sailing and fishing, or to go out to Florida wilderness for a picnic. Oyster parties were another event that made us all happy. It is still ringing in my ears how Irena was laughing and struggling to pronounce “oysters from A-pa-la-chi-cola”. She never made it right, but it was also hilarious just to watch her.

Thank you Irena for making our lives so much richer and happier.
