“ One of the "Fabulous Seven", Jack was driving his brother George's 1939 powder blue Plymouth back in the day, complete with tassels, taking as many of us as it could carry to Pershing High. Soon after graduation, Jack received his greetings from Uncle Sam and along with John Cavalier, one of the other seven was shipped off to Alaska. For a while we all went in our own directions. Fast forward... Jack visited my wife Shirley and I in Las Vegas carrying Betty's ring on his key-chain. The luckiest day of his life was when he made her his bride.

Jack was as loving caring father to both of his boys, Scott and Steven, and an adoring Grandpa to Jenny. After a lifetime of sharing our families, lives and memories, we grieve with his sister Shirley and her family here in Vegas. We are forever thankful for having been friends with his whole family. We send our Love and Prayers to the whole Buhler Bunch.... Especially you Betty...

“ Our deepest condolences to the Buhler family. Jack always treated me like I was family as did Betty and Scott. I was very happy to run into the family just a few weeks ago while shopping at Costco, I'm thankful for that.

“ Betty, Scott, Linda & Jenny Our heart is broken to hear such sad news. The memories of all the good times we shared will keep Jack with us forever. He was a mentor and friend to Auggie going back a long way. We feel that we were blessed to share our lives with Jack and all of you. Jack will be missed and he is loved. God has called him home to rest, his pain is no more but he will live on in everyone that loved him. My prayer is that God comfort each and everyone of you that you feel his touch and know the peace that only God can give during this difficult time. Love You All Diana & Auggie

“ Jack was a loving friend, golfer and hunting buddy. But the last time we hunted we decided to stay in the cabin and just make chili for the rest of the gang. And I'll always remember my bogus hole in one from our golfing week end in Ohio. God Bless Betty, Scott, Linda, Jennifer and family.
