“ When we think of wealth we often think monetary things (toys if your will) of which Jack had many! The greatest wealth is not what we amass in life, but what we leave behind and is most prolific in the form of kindness, friendship, love, generosity, and teaching. Jack was an extremely wealthy man and I am fortunate to have been a recipient of his wealth and for that I am most grateful! Thank you Jack for being a part of my formative years.

God bless and Rest in Peace!

“ Dearest Uncle Jack...priceless memories of up north at Voyer Lake that embraced me from childhood to adulthood. Fishing from the dock, tractor tire inner tubing on Lake 15, being privileged to attend deer hunting camp, snowmobiling caravans and your famous Hot Toddy's, just to name a few....your sprit will forever flow thru the 'Jack Pines' !! Thank you for everything....give Auntie Pune a big hug for me...Nana and Poppe too!!

I will continue to pray for all of you....

Love You xo

“ Jack was a guy that never judged anyone as he had a heart of gold. I was a young policeman and it didn't matter how many years you had on to Jack, if you were one of us you were exactly that. Even though we had 20 years between our ages we shared a common bond and of course that led to sharing good times together. From the trips up to Atlanta hunting and snowmobiling or just tinkering on old cars together as he was somewhat of an expert, at least much more than I. I learned from him and his experiences and I know that I'm a better person for have known him. He will be missed but never forgotten. Godspeed my friend and I will see you on the other side.

The CABIN where you taught the city people to brush their teeth with peppermint schnapps. The tea toddies. To climb a blind (blind drunk). To keep a pot on the stove so anybody could add anything and enjoy a feast. To enjoy the campfire, the peace, the stars, the laughter, and friendship. We will miss you as we miss Madeline. You are both with us forever!! Love and Hugs, Carla and Jim

*Jack was a true Jack Of All Trades. He was willing to help fix anything that needed fixin, plumbing, electrical, cars, or boats. The fix may not pass code but it would usably work.
Have been hunting with Jack for almost 50 years. His cabin was always open for guests with a pot of tea on the stove, maybe a pot of chili or at least some stew in the well. Everybody was welcome, well fed and well drunk at Jacks.
Glad to have known you. Glad to have been able to been with you on your last (next) to last trip to your cabin. Will miss you greatly.*

One hot August night (1968) I was lying on the couch with a fan blowing on me. I was expecting my second child. I heard a banging on my door & a voice yelling I came to greet my new neighbor. There standing at the door was Jack with a plate of food. Steak, bake potatoes etc. He was having a back yard party. That is how I first met Jack. Our second encounter I again heard a banging on my door. Only to find Jack standing there with a huge flask of liquor yelling I came to have a drink with my new neighbors. That was the beginning of our beautiful blended families. Jack, Madelene - Jim & Nancy Julie, Karen & Deena - James & David. We always knew where are children were together at our house or theres. Thank you for all those memories but most of all your gift of friendship. Forever in our hearts. Love to all. Jim & Nancy Skoviak
