“ I am heartbroken.....Jack you were one of the kindest, fun loving, most genuine humans I have ever known. Your beautiful eyes and smile lit up the room and your big hugs let us all know how much you loved us. You never missed telling me you loved me, and I sure did love you right back! I will miss your corny jokes, although we all laughed because you laughed at them too, our many get togethers especially around the bonfire signing and drinking whiskey, sitting in your awesome garage admiring your collection, but I will forever miss your texts on Mother's Day, my birthday, or just to say hi and that you missed me. You never missed a beat. You were such a great Papa to our grandbabies. Letting them do whatever they wanted right down to painting your nails - toes included, to doing your hair, teaching the boys how to shoot a bow and showing Shane how to skin & gut a deer. At the time I was grossed out and couldn't believe Shane even participated in that, but now I am grateful he had that experience with you – he will never forget that. They all have wonderful memories of their Papa ❤️ You taught them life lessons that they will always remember. I will miss you forever Jack. I know you will take care of all of us and that is comforting to know. Rest easy now and know we all loved you SO much and will never forget you. I love you Jack xo (((HUGS)))

“ Happy, so friendly, great hug giver, he had the specialness inside of him - the spirit of light and always made everybody feel welcome - like that old feeling you get when you see someone that you have not seen in a while “it’s so good to see you” that’s how Jack made you feel every time, everybody’s friend❤️ And his beautiful smiling eyes... you will be always be missed and always thought of and we will always celebrate the joy of knowing you.

Luv u,

“ I have always remembered Jack coming to our home with Danny. always a nice kid. i also remember him telling me about working at slaughter house downtown and how he quit because he could not handle it. i could not blame him. through the years i have always thought about Jack and would ask Danny how and what he was doing. so young. so much to do yet in life. God had another plan... God bless his family and bring comfort to them in fond special memories... Janet Gottardo

“ I had the privilege of knowing Jackie since he was a little boy just learning how to walk. He was a sweet boy that grew to be a sweet, kind and loving man.

Jackie was always genuine. He had a gentle truthfulness about him and when he would embrace you and say he loved you there was no doubt that he was being sincere. Anyone that ever had the privilege of being embraced by him and being told that he loved you not only heard the words but could feel his love. i will miss never being able to see the he was planning to add to his garage collection of memorabilia. but i will miss him more. If we all stay on the right path maybe some day we will join him in his new home and be able to have that family gathering that he so wanted.

Bubby, you will always be in my heart!
Love, Aunt Sharon

It was supposed to read I will miss never being able to see the additions he was planning to add to his garage collection of memorabilia.

I hope that gave Bubby a good laugh!

“ Jack had a smile no one ever forgets....kind and caring eyes ready to always help you any way be could. Jack battled a disease no one deserves and our hearts hurt for him. Now Jack is no longer sick as he rests in the arms of Heavens Angels watching over his girls . We believe as Jack smiles down from Heaven the sun will be brighter and warmer for those who knew him. “ I was his sissy and he was my bubby.We were only 361 days apart in age.When we were little wherever sissy was bubby was. I love him dearly and will miss him daily.If I was to write all of my thoughts on Jackie,it would be pages long.He was the kindest,gentlest human being.He never met a stranger.If you knew him you loved him.A hardworking,give you the shirt off his back kind of guy.Loved and cherished all of his family & friends.Jackie was definitely ONE OF A KIND!!! I love you bubby and I will wait to see you again,Lisa

“ I can't even put into words what I want to say. You are and always will be my daddy. I have memories from now all the way til me being a little bitty girl. You were my first best friend. The bond we had could never compare to ANYONE. We were the same everyone called me a little Jackie, I am your twin. I could write for days and it still wouldn't be enough. I remember you took me to my field trip in 2nd grade to Yates cider mill and you kept saying go ahead with your friends cause I wanted to be stuck up your butt cause I was so excited you were taking me. Or when you put me on the 4 wheeler at Genes house and I couldn't stop it and I went airborne and you just laughed your ass off ( I was ok of course). You also had your sincere soft moments like when I got into the car accident in 10th it was "your weekend" that weekend and you literally sat by my side the whole time and just coddled me and loved on me and made sure I was comfortable. I have to mention this because it was our thing too... remember when we would go to swap meets every weekend when I was little and you would take me to get whatever parts I wanted and I would help you build parts and refurbish them you let me have so much part on the Barracuda. Remember the igloo you built me on Catalano with just a bowl? We sat in there for hours. I can go on and on, I had a memory in my head while I was writing this but at the same time Too many were coming out so I'll keep those in my heart always daddy. I want to keep typing but I also would be on here for the rest of my life. You were always my protector and I know you will ALWAYS BE HERE WITH ME. I love you so much to the moon and back. Love, your baby girl

“ The ability he had with children. I don't think I've ever seen someone attract so much energy. Everyone loves him. He opened doors in my heart that I didn't even think existed.. Broke down comfort zones that let you know You were safe with him. He was truly astonishing

“ As a friend to his daughter Brooke, I got to experience the fun side of jack. He was always smiling and making jokes. One of my favorite memories of jack, was when he made me “dippy” eggs for the first time. I had never had them before and he made us breakfast one day when I was at his house hanging out with Brooke. I also remember watching Magic Mike for the first time and he was making jokes the whole time. His energy was something that couldn't be matched. I also knew that when I was at their house, I was safe, I was in good hands. My heart breaks for both Brooke and Bri. He was a great man and will definitely be missed❤️

“ Jackie was not only a father figure to me, but someone I considered a friend. We went on many adventures together that most son/father relationships could only dream of. We loved and laughed, fought horribly and made up wonderfully. He always excepted my apologies as I did his and held no grudge once we did. We were always able to move on and further deepen our unique bond. He always told me I was the son he never had, and I always told him he was the father I always needed. I love you Jackie.
