*Heavenly Father,
The death of Karen and Christine's mother has filled our eyes with tears and our heart with sorrow.
We are distressed by the mysteries of Your providence.
As Your child we want so much to say, "Not my will, but Thine be done," but at times we find it difficult to do.
Forgive us and help us, we pray, by Your Holy Spirit, to accept Your ways as always best.*

*Apply to Christine, Glen, Derek, Alison, Meg and the whole family's wounded heart the balm of Your precious promises.
Let them soon experience its healing power.
Teach us not to mourn as those who have no hope.
Wipe away the tears from our eyes that we may be able to see through the mist, beyond death and grave, to the resurrection and life assured by the glorious victory of our Savior Jesus Christ over death and the grave.*

*May the passing of Christine's mother remind us that we, too, are but a pilgrim and stranger on earth.
Grant us grace to love less and less the things which are material and temporal, and to love more and more the things which are spiritual and eternal.
Teach us to number our days and to apply our heart to the wisdom taught by Jesus Christ, that He is the Way and the Truth and the Life and that no man comes to You but by Him. Amen.*

*Love,
John, Carmen and Jonathan*
