“ Dear Failer Family and Friends,
I wasn't privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mrs.Failer as you were, but it saddens me to read of your tremendous loss. Please accept my family's sincerest condolences. It brings great comfort and hope to many to know that The Almighty God and Creator promises to rid humans of death,pain, sorrow, and outcry, very soon, in his Word The Bible . May you all have peace.

“ Mrs. Jackie Failer was the hardest working and kindest woman I know. She loved her husband with a fierce love and her sons as well. Though she was small she was to be reckoned with. Her stories about the city of Detroit, meeting Al and moving to the country were hysterical and told with a straight face. She talked about surviving tornados, making room in a tiny house for five boys, hunters shooting at the house, her stroke, all while looking over her glasses with a smile in her french canadian eyes. She cooked and cleaned making sure everyone was taken care of around her. She stayed in the loop and would tell you straight out her own thoughts on matters. It was an honor to get to know such an incredible woman at the kitchen table eating a pineapple salad while she cut out sales from catalogues and ate candy. She was quite literally Al's other half finding quiet moments of prayers and memories to finish each day ending with a kiss goodnight. Jackie is a woman I hope to emulate in strength and character. She is sorely missed. Truly, Kat (Roesch) Zemke
