“ I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Jim in person, however I spoke to him on the phone and he sent me text messages. He always told me he couldn't wait to meet me and I was really looking forward to the day we met. I always thanked him for being a great boyfriend to my daughter, always being there when she needed him and making her happy. He told me she did the same for him. I loved him because Jenn did and she told me he was the best person she has ever known. My heart is breaking at his loss. He obviously had a very positive impact on so many people as stated through facebook comments. I still will meet him someday, in heaven.
