“ We are so very sorry to hear about the loss of your father and husband. Stan an I knew him from the many activities that Fay and Jim participated in for the local. May he rest in peace and walk hand in hand with his creator. May you all find strength at this time. God Bless you. Stan & Nola Podolan

“"Uncle" Jim was a very special friend to our whole family and an important part of our lives and just a great guy. We all have great memories of time we spent together at home on the back porch, or out on the boat, or skiing up at Lewiston, or at the UAW camp at Black Lake; and I missed visiting with Jim and Fay after I moved from Michigan. They are both a couple of real characters, and real people and just a kick to be around. When they came to our wedding and we all traveled around the area it was one of the highlights of the time! Truer friends there are not.

Our love and thoughts and condolences to you Fay and Peggy and Jim.

And now so long Jim; it really and truly was damn good to know ya'.

Your pals, Kevin and Deirdre Clark
