“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share the hope promised in the Bible.
God has set a day in which he purposes to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has furnished a guarantee to all men in that he has resurrected him from the dead.
(Acts 17:31)
If your heart yearns to see a loved one again, study the Bible to make this resurrection hope your very own.##imported-begin##S

“ I am so sorry to read of your loss. Death is described in the Bible as our enemy, but we have a great hope from our Loving God who promises us in Revelation 21:4 that soon death and pain will be no more. I pray that you can find a measure of comfort from God's promises for our future.##imported-begin##Beth##imported-end##

“ Rosella, Laurie, and John, Del and I are so sorry to hear of Jimmie's death; we're also sorry we could not make it to the funeral home. I had to take Del to the doctor to get a Holtor Monitor put on her, and will take her back tomorrow to have it taken off. Del has been having some health problems the last couple weeks and the doctors have finally decided to do some testing to see what is going on. Please forgive us for not coming tonight. As soon as we are able, Rosella, we will come to visit you. God Bless, Kathy Downs and Del LiskeWD49##imported-begin##Delphine Liske; Kathleen Downs##imported-end##

“ Dear John & Nancy,

Jean Deneweth called me and told me of the passing of James. I unfortunately will not be able to attend to express my condolences in person. I am very sorry to hear and will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers especially over the holiday season.

Love,
