“ I was so shocked when I found out that James passed away from another friend at work today. I have so many fond memories of hanging out talking with James at work (Harvard) and playing poker after work. He was such a gentle soul and full of energy and fun. I could never keep up with him biking, but I tried my best. I am glad we had the time together that we did, but wish we had more. You are missed, but will never be forgotten.

“ James was a great guy, he was always fun to talk to and play games with; he had a great sense of humor; he wouldn't hesitate to lend a hand when needed, and he was truly one of the friendliest people I've ever known. He will be missed!

“ Beaumont Family,
I am so very glad that I knew James and that I could call him a friend. He was such a kind, smart, creative, talented and decent man. He somehow seemed to know everyone in Ann Arbor, and he had all the best takes. His love of biking was exceeded only by his love of board games. He is one of a few that could keep up in the 'department of the unexpected', and I'll forever hold onto my memories of his quirky personality. James, brother, may you rest in peace.
