“Michelle, we wish you and your family our sincere condolences. This is such a hard part of life, but our memories and our certain knowledge of a blessed reunion one day seem to make the pain just a little easier to bear.

Your dad is watching and although from a different place, he watches his family with an even more perfect love. He watches you with the pride of knowing that with God's help, he did a very good job raising you and being the provider of love, resources, support and all those things we all look to our dads to provide.

He looks at you and your children with a pride which he now realizes is truly deserved. He's still 'pulling' for you to excel in peace, love and happiness and he will always be your biggest fan. Be at peace as he is now at peace! You will one day be with him again!##imported-begin##Donn Bohde and Family##imported-end##

“ Daddy:

My loving father, my best friend, my rock, the man in my life. You always did for others and never expected anything in return. Your wisdom, hard work and strong will is what guided mom and I through life. Whenever there was a problem, whether big or little, you were always calm and said "don't worry about it, I will always be here for you". God took you from us too soon, but I know you are still looking out for us. You will be forever in our hearts and so deeply missed that words cannot even express. You never were a man of many words, but everyone knew how much you loved them through your kindness, your tenderness, your touch. Your grandchildren loved you so very much that they feel a part of them is missing "Papa deserves a plaque in his name mama cause he was such a loving and kind man, we miss him so much". You touched more hearts than you thought. I will tremendously miss you ~ you are my one and only and it's going to be very hard to go on with you not in my life anymore. I'm going to try and hold my head up like you always told me and be strong for mom and my children. I love you so much daddy, I just can't believe you're not with us. May you breathe strong and walk the clouds like you haven't been able to in a very long time. You are forever in my heart and deeply missed more than you will ever know.

All my love,

*Your Little Poppy##imported-begin##Michelle (Cardella)
