“ My deepest sympathies go out to Jim's family and friends. I met Jimmy in early elementary school. I was friends with his brother Pete and got to know Jimmy from going over their house. While i haven't seen Jim since mid-late 90s, we got to interact a little bit on social networks myspace and facebook a couple times a year. I was deeply sadden to hear he was no longer with us. May you rest in peace,Jim.

“ I am so sorry that this has happened. Jim was always nice to me and never had nothing bad to say about anything. Just an all around nice guy. You will truly be missed. Prayers being sent to the Cetrone family.

“ I want to remember Jim as that quirky little kid that use to come over our house and hang with Marc. He use to come with Pete and eventually Pete stopped coming over and Jim just came. Him and Marc would swim, play video games and talk girls. Always a great kid very respectful to my husband and I. He really liked my late husband and the feeling was mutual. I am so sorry for Joe and Sharon and the entire Cetrone Family! Julie and the kids too. Please know the Huyghe Family thought of him as one of our own boys as they were growing up. God Bless Jim may you now Rest in Peace! 😞

“ Jim was there to witness the first time I was drunk lol... it was at Annas house, it was a big yellow house in Roseville, we were all so young & also so full of life, we had fun, we laughed, we partied, but most of all we all as friends shared alot of wonderful, crazy, & unforgettable memories that will never be forgotten... “ Uncle Jimbo, slim Jim, so many memories. The best memories of Jim were of baseball. Him and Ron were coaches together for Troy, Zac, and I for I think 6 years straight. His positive attitude, uplifting pep talks, and overall love for sports was tremendous help when the team was down. Jim, you are truly missed by so many people. Until we meet again
Love you, Mason

“ Jim sketched a picture of my newborn daughter and myself together right after she was born. He did so with such care and precision that there was no questioning his talent as an artist. When i tried to pay him for it, he wouldn't accept any money. The Jim I knew took pride in his work. He was genuinely funny with a sharp wit. My respects to his family and loved ones for their loss.

“ I remember Jim as the guy EVERYONE loved. Everyone was Jim's friend. He was always happy when I saw him. Always laid back and never let anything or anyone get to him. Jim was the kind of friend that even if you haven't seen him in years, you could still pick up right where you left off. He was a great back cracker, and great hugger. He was always fun to have at a party, but he was usually the one throwing the party. There were many camping trips, canoe trips, concerts and parties throughout the years. He was so much fun, and will be missed by many.

I wish Jim's parents, siblings, wife, children, family and friends peace and healing. I wish for you guidance from above to help you mend from this terrible loss. Lean on each other when you are weak, and ask for help when you need it.

“ I must say that my best memories, the most fun times in my life were with Grammers. A small group of us called him "Grammers" and we still call him that :) We would do this little thing EVERYTIME we saw each other...

Jimmy: What's in the cup?

Rick: Rootbeer.. Want a drink?

Jimmy: There's just something's I don't do!

Rick & Jimmy: Oooooooooohhhhhhhh!!!! (while doing a little dance)

I miss Grams so much already. I am praying for peace within his Family.

I know your in Heaven brother. Until next time, be easy. Love, Rick Parke. (Rackery)
