“ Dear family, I am sorry about the loss of your loved one James A. Dibble, and I want to extent my deepest sympathy. After the death of a loved one we sometimes wonder what will become of me now that they're gone. I have found comfort in Matthew 6:25-34, which tells us never, be anxious about the next day, for the next day will have its own anxieties. Please find comfort in these additional bible scriptures Luke 23:43 and John 5:28, 29; jw.org.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Linda and the family. James and Linda are those types of people that you barely know but hold a special place in your heart. I work for their doctors office and was always excited to see them. James was a special person and may his memories live on. James you will be missed. xoxoxo

“ Prior to putting up a brave fight against cancer my Uncle Jim put up with 5 crazy women and one canine diva. I know he was greeted at the gates of Heaven with winning Keno tickets after taming us for so many years. I know he will continue to watch over his “Barney” women. He served as an example for us ladies that a man with stories of historic bad boy days can still be a good, strong, epic, loving husband, dad, brother and uncle. Our little family will never be the same without him.

Uncle Jim was my hero and I will forever have an emptiness without him. I feel truly blessed to have had him be such a huge part of my life. He was a true family man, who was there for us ... no matter how rough things were, he had that special ability to always bring a smile to our faces and make us laugh. May you rest in heaven Uncle Jim...you will be truly missed.

There is a special angel in heaven by the name of Jim(Jimmy) Dibble. I am sorry for your loss Lynn and your family, I know he was a good guy. He always had a smile on his face and laughter in his voice. My heart goes out to you LeeAnn I know how painful this is for you to loose your brother. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. Until we meet again Jimmy, keep a watch over us we need it.
