“ Dear Barbara, I wanted to extend my condolence in the loss of your husband James. Please be aware that Jehovah Gods's concern for the elderly is evident in the scriptures. In fact, the Bible reveals that Jehovah supplies comfort in various ways to those in need. Their will be a time when "death will be no more, neither mourning or outcry..." (Revelation 21:3,4)

“ Jim, my boss for sixteen years at United Way, was an AMAZING man and boss.

When my daughter, Gretchen, was a baby & toddler, and sick every other week, he would let me set up a bed for her, in my office, because daycare would not allow sick kids ever. I would have NEVER made it in the working world, as a single parent, if not for Jim.

He also mentored me and helped me gain the confidence I have today to endure and surpass the "Good Ole Boys Club" we women were subjected to in the 90's.

Jim Fisher, you will be missed!!

“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one James Fisher. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. The Scriptures contain some practical advice. There is a time to weep according to Ecclesiastes 3: 1, 4. So don't hold back the tears. Remember, they are a natural and necessary part of grieving and even God's Son Jesus Christ wept. The Bible gives us the best comfort during times of grief. (Luke 23:43; John 11:11, 43-44).
